

Case Study

Project:

Wellington House - London

Description:

Precision manufactured and installed stainless steel lift reveal panels from Encasement are being used to create the 'perfect' finish and enhance the lift installation at the new multi-storey Wellington House building, which is part of the prestigious St. Martins Courtyard development near Covent Garden.

