

Case Study

Project:

17 Storey Block of Flats, Northern England

Description:

As part of an ongoing social housing refurbishment programme by the local authority, a block of flats in Northern England uses Versa pipe boxing installed at high level to conceal long runs of utilities pipe work, which provides every dwelling with water and gas, on every floor in the 17-storey building.

